SHORT SYNOPSIS: (66 WORDS)

Jesus did not lie, as the Church allege, when he said he would return within a particular time frame. He did return; on time, and in the East, where the Gospels said he would. Two billion easterners and 1st century Sanskrit literature confirm that the Son of the Father in Heaven, came in 78AD, and is the Savior of the World.

MEDIUM SYNOPSIS: (107 WORDS)

Three Wise Men from the East sponsored Jesus' ministry. He worked all over the world. Jesus did not lie when he said he would return within a particular time frame, as Christians allege. He returned on time, and in the East, as stated in the Gospels. Two billion easterners, and 1st century Sanskrit literature confirm the Son of the Father in Heaven came in 78AD, and is the Savior of the World. This book follows along with Jesus' travels East and West. He worked among the major religions, and all showed massive reformation movements. He returns glorified, and is present for all beings, you included.

LONG SYNOPSIS: (376 WORDS)

The book deals with the thesis that Jesus did not lie when he said he would return within a particular time frame, and after certain events would occur. He did in fact return on time, and in the East, exactly where he said he would first appear. Based on solid scholarship and self-evident truth that anyone can observe today, this book proves that Christians are being misled—Christ came, exactly as he had promised.

Jesus' sponsors and benefactors, the Three Wise Men from the East, were easterners. This book follows Jesus' travels East and West. We meet poignant characters; to mention one, Mari from Magadha in Eastern India. She becomes his foremost student, chief teacher and travel companion.

Jesus' 2nd coming, as the glorified World Saviour, was announced in Sanskrit Scripture, accepted by the 2nd 4th World Council of Buddhism in c.75AD. He was hailed as the Son of the Father in Heaven, Saviour of all sentient beings. He teaches Humility, Simplicity and Compassion. He speaks of an all-benevolent Father in Heaven, who is not the Creator. The Creator is beyond our comprehension. He teaches that souls are reborn as spiritual beings.

This Christ-like figure, entitled Avalokitesvara in Sanskrit language, is deeply venerated by almost two billion easterners throughout South East Asia. The largest statues in the world, are of the Lord. The book is aimed at a general audience. Therefore, it is written as an historical novel, backed by academic notations on the book's website.

This is a good news book. It brings peace and beauty to present day, and apostate Christians. It validates what Hindus always knew. Buddhists are happy to hear that we also now see the light and Atheists find Jesus teaching about deities, and the true purpose of life and the simple ontology of our existence refreshing, even moving.

Jesus' ministry was a huge success. During the 1st century, enormous reformations took place in major religions where he worked: Buddhism (Mahayana), Hinduism (Bhagavad Gita movement) and Judaism (Christianity).

The Lord and hosts of spiritual beings who work for our enlightenment and rebirth, are present with us. The West now sees the light, of the lightning that struck in the East. The Light, is now visible in the West (Jesus: Mt 24:27)

5 POINTS OF INTEREST ABOUT THE BOOK'S CONTENT OR STORY:

1. Easterners were the first, and for a long time the only, humans to know about and believe in Jesus' upcoming ministry in a human incarnation. They become his benefactors, finance the ministry (for more than 30 years). The Three Wise Men from the East, are for some reason totally obscured by the Christian church.
2. God, our Father in Heaven, is in Heaven. He is a monarch, King of Heaven. Heavens and earths are created, by the Omnipresent Creator, the One, the Prime Mover whom we can never fathom or speak to. God our Father, is a senior spiritual being who lives in Heaven, In the late 1st century Sanskrit literature, God is entitled Amitabha (Almighty one of Illimitable Light), and our heaven is called Sukhavati (Land of Pure Bliss). These are new ideas for westerners, but common knowledge for easterners.
3. "Mary the Magdalene" comes from Magadha in North East India, the land where Siddharta Gautama hailed from. She becomes known in the West as Mari the Magadhalene because they followed a Hellenistic fashion to add 'lene' from the heroine 'Helene' to female names.
4. Thomas is sent East to prepare a community to receive westerners from Judea who would flee before the Romans sack Jerusalem (almost a million were killed in Jerusalem and Jews were despised all of the Roman Empire). Jesus tells them, before his ascension to heaven, "...head for the mountains (of Kashmir) if you want to be safe." Thomas' "church" was known as Church of the East for a while until it was abandoned a century after the Lord' glorious return. By that time, the congregation had already assimilated with locals. Remnants of their influence are still seen in Kashmir and the Nuristan area.
5. On the cross, Jesus utters words in a strange language, which Roman soldiers repeat to a writer. And in Gethsemane, Jesus addresses the Father by a title, in a strange language, that the western disciples repeat. Not knowing Sanskrit, writers force the issue by matching the reported sounds to a language known to them, Aramaic. And they bungle it terribly. The book finally solves this mystery; he spoke in Sanskrit. He calls the Father, Light Father, or Abha Father. Which is according to the Father's title, Amitabha, Almighty one of Illimitable Light.
